LIQUOR TO BE BARRED FROM NAVY

Secretary Daniels Issues Order to Become Effective July 1

HAD BEEN RECOMMENDED

By Surgeon Gen. Braisted After An Exhaustive Investigation Into the Subject—Naval Officers Decline to Discuss Matter.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, April 6.—Secretary Daniels' order barring the use of any liquors in the navy, effective after July 1 next, was generally discussed in naval and other circles here today. The order, one of the most sweeping promulgated by the naval department, not only abolishes the traditional "wine mess" of the officers, but will bar all alcoholic liquors from every ship and shore station of the navy.

Surgeon General Braisted recommended it after an exhaustive investigation into the problem.

While declining to discuss for publication the effect of the order, naval officers privately expressed the belief that it may fall of its purpose—to prevent or decrease drunkenness within the navy.

In effect, the order does no more than abolish the wine mess. No distilled spirits are sold in the wine mess—only wines and beer. Officers contend it is absurd to suppose that men ever become drunkards on beer or champagne. They express the opinion that the order will trespass their personal liberty and prevent their affording visitors from foreign navies the wines which they are accustomed to on their own vessels.

The order was hailed with joy here today by the prohibition forces, who declared it will have a great influence on the furtherance of the temperance cause.

When asked today to comment on the order, President Wilson said it was strictly a department matter. It is understood that the President was not consulted by Mr. Daniels before he issued the order and no one professes to know whether it has the President's approval.

Lansing, Mich., April 6.—Twelve counties of Michigan today voted on the local option question. Eight of the counties are now dry. Nearly all of them have figured in more than one exciting battle over the same issue during the quarter of a century that has almost annually been before the voters.

The campaign this year has as usual, been hotly waged. Many thousands of dollars have been spent for campaign literature and scores of mass meetings have been held.

Spurgeon, of Des Moines, who was forcibly escorted from the city last night by unknown persons, because of attacks on the Catholic priesthood in a lecture, was brought to a local hospital early today suffering from injuries at the hands of his assailants. Efforts of the police to learn the identity of Spurgeon's assailants had been unsuccessful up to noon.

Spurgeon's nose was broken and he was suffering from other injuries.

Grand Duke Banished for Love of American?

PRINCESS BELOSSELSKY

GRAND DUKE DMITRI

The order of the Czar of Russia for the banishment of the Grand Duke Dmitri from the court for a period of four months has caused a sensation in army, social, and political circles. He is the first cousin of the Russian ruler.

The grand duke, who is young, is believed to have fallen in love with Princess Belosselsky, a beautiful American, who has been a great favorite at the Court of St. Petersburg. She was Miss Susan Whittier, daughter of the late General Whittier of Boston. There has been no hint that the grand duke's affection was reciprocated. He has simply been persistent, and the report that the czar had picked him out as the husband for one of his own daughters, becomes interesting considering these developments. The grand duke has gone to Cairo. He must remain there or somewhere else away from the court for four months.

The auto turned turtle, burying the boy, the driver, Louis Marks, 19, and his companion, Tom Karavanak, beneath it. Marks and Karavanak are in a hospital seriously injured. They were testers for the Stearns auto factory and were trying out a car when the accident occurred. Young Vogel and his sister were visiting in the city.

NO DANGER OF FLOOD AT CAIRO

Protective Concrete Walls Built 17 Feet Above The Sidewalks

COST THE STATE $339,000

For Levee Work at Towns Along the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers—Had Desperate Fights Last Year to Save Cities.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Cairo, Ill., April 6.—For the first time in history residents of Cairo and the cities along the Ohio river are watching the rapid rise of the waters of the Ohio and Mississippi river without fear.

Danger that the disastrous floods of 1912 and 1913 may be repeated has been dispelled by the completion in advance of schedule time of the levee work here and at Shawneetown and Mound City for which the legislature last spring appropriated $339,000.

Protective walls with concrete facing stand 17 feet above the sidewalks in Cairo. The entire levee protecting this city has been raised to 60 feet. The flood stage in 1913 was 54.8; the levees on the Ohio river front were less than fifty-five feet and the days of peril when only constant watching by the militiamen, sand bags and board barriers on top of the levee protected the city from destruction are vividly remembered.

It is estimated the final cost of the new construction will be about $220,000, a saving of about $20,000. The work was under the direction of the rivers and lakes commission.

The Ohio river levee built by the state extends 2,750 lineal feet of earth levee paved with riprap stone, with 52,196 cubic yards of earth fill. South of this is 8,580 lineal feet of concrete wall with ample reinforcement.

Fourth, Sixth and Eighth streets which abut on the river have been provided with two 15-foot roadways, with 9 by 12 creosoted timbers to be used as barriers for protection when there is danger of the water rising above the 52-foot level.

Shawneetown and Mound City where the citizens had desperate fights to save their cities have been given ample protection though the work has not been so extensive as at Cairo.

It cost the state $65,000 to help the river cities save themselves and to give aid to flood sufferers last spring.

NEWARK'S FIRST AUTO SHOW WAS A BIG SUCCESS

Newark's first automobile show came to an end Saturday night, having been in full blast for six days and nights in the Arcade. The show was promoted by W. J. Eade, president of the Newark Electrical Co., and to him belongs the credit for the success of the exhibit. The idea was to get the dealers to show their cars, explain their different claims to merit and at the same time give an opportunity for the general public to view automobiles at close range and learn something about them. Incidentally the business was given an appreciable impetus that has redounded to the benefit of the dealers. In each of these anticipations the show was a success and this was evidenced by the expression of all the exhibitors of satisfaction over their treatment last week and their intention of heartily co-operating for the success of a bigger show next year.

Reporter Holding Dr. Price, Methodist Minister On Trial For Kissing Women of His Church

When Dr. J. E. Price, pastor of the Washington Heights Methodist church, who was on trial at the Metropolitan Temple, New York City, on the charges of women of his congregation that he had kissed them, he tried to escape the photographers who wanted his picture. But Fred O'Connor, a reporter famous in New York City, was determined that his newspaper should have a picture. When the pastor came from the trial room O'Connor held him while the photographers snapped. Then the doctor was permitted to go on.

A half dozen women said they were ready to testify that the pastor, who is sixty years of age, did not act properly toward them. Several insist he kissed or tried to kiss them. One said he kissed her behind the ear. The trial was held in secret by a committee of Methodist ministers, and after the first day's session one of the complaining witnesses charged openly that an effort was being made to whitewash the accused by his fellow ministers.

American Consular Agent Given Exequatur Today By Huerta Government

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, April 6.—The cancellation by the Huerta government of the exequatur of American consular agent George C. Carothers, because he sent to Washington despatches saying the rebels had taken Torreon from the Huerta forces, failed to disturb the state department officials today. The Huerta government still denies Torreon has fallen. Mr. Carothers obtained his exequatur when he was accredited to the Madero government and stationed at Torreon.

Since the outbreak of the Carranza revolution he had a commission in northern Mexico and his exequatur from the Mexico City government has been of little value to him, all his dealings being with the constitutionalists. It is the intention of the American government to keep Carothers with General Villa and the constitutionalist leader to make prompt representations for the safety of Americans and other foreigners generally. Should Mr. Carothers find it necessary to go into territory controlled by the Huerta government, he may now be unable to do business with its local authorities but there is no prospect that he personally will be inconvenienced or prevented from making observations as unofficial representative.

Neither John Lind nor William Bayard Hale had any exequatur while in federal territory.

Official advices telling of the expulsion of the six hundred Spaniards from Torreon by General Villa were expected during the day. Until the Spanish ambassador calls it to the attention of state department here, there is little likelihood of any action by the Washington government. The United States itself has issued a warning to its own subjects to leave these parts of Mexico where military operations are being carried on and has more than once intimated that other governments might well take similar steps. The right of deportation is one provided for under the Mexican constitution and has been exercised alike by the Huerta government and the constitutionalists for alleged military or financial support of the enemy and various other reasons.

No request for recognition of the constitutionalists has been made by General Carranza. President Wilson indicated today that the United States would be guided by developments as they arose in determining such questions. The president, however, spoke of the practice which the American government had followed with respect to Mexico previously and pointed out that Washington waited almost two years to recognize Porfirio Diaz a half century ago.

Mr. Rayno, the ambassador from Spain, received official notice today of Villa's expulsion of Spanish subjects from Torreon and prepared to make representations in protest to Secretary Bryan.

Spain not only objects to their expulsion, but also to the confiscation of their property, which is estimated to run into the millions.

COUNTY CLERKS WANT TO KNOW OFFICE TENURE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, April 6.—The state affiliation of county clerks will bring soon to determine whether their terms are two or three years. Geo. N. Young, clerk of courts in Seneca county, will make a demand of state officials for a three-year commission. If their refusal, he will bring a mandamus suit to compel them to do so.

Should the courts hold that clerks of courts serve for three years, the effect would be to make an extension of two years to their present terms. There would be no way of electing successors until 1916, as county and state officers are not elected in odd numbered years. Such a holding could make it necessary to amend the constitution to fix the terms of clerks at either two or three years so that they could be elected in even numbered years.

SEEK DAMAGES ON ACCOUNT OF AUTO ACCIDENT.
Suits for $5,425 against John Swisher and Carl Swisher, were filed in common pleas court by attorneys Smythe & Smythe, for Charles Donaldson, who charges the defendants with responsibility for personal damages and death of a driving horse.

Donaldson's petition alleges that on March 29 he was driving along the pike leading from Newark to Wilkins Corners, and when he reached a strip of roadway not over four feet wide, with ditches on either side ten feet deep, he met an automobile. He alleges as he turned his team to pass the approaching vehicle, the Swisher car came upon him from the rear without warning and traveling at 35 miles an hour. He charges that the defendants' car struck his horse and his mare and that the mare was killed outright and another horse was injured and the buggy damaged.

NINE MEN MEET DEATH IN CAISSON

Working On Bridge Construction In the Mississippi River

WERE NINETY FEET DEEP

When Tube Was Driven Into Gas Pocket Near the Arkansas Shore—Will Have to Get Diver Suits to Recover the Bodies.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Memphis, Tenn., April 6.—Nine men were killed here today when they were caught by a gas explosion in caisson No. 5, of the new Harahan bridge under construction across the Mississippi river. The men, all of whom were white, it is said, had just gone to work, relieving a shift composed of ten negroes.

The explosion is said to have occurred when the tube was driven into a pocket of gas near the Arkansas shore.

The men work in the caisson in shifts of eighteen or twenty and it is said a change of shifts had just been concluded. The dead and injured are being placed on boats to be brought to Memphis hospitals.

The caisson is near the Arkansas shore and is 90 feet deep. The negroes who had just been relieved, it is said, were in a chamber about 15 feet from the surface, when they encountered the first rush of gas and scurried for the top.

Officials of the company which is constructing the bridge claim that eight men composed the shift which entered the tube this morning.

Up to noon only two bodies had been recovered. It would be necessary, it was stated, to get diver suits before men could be sent into the tube for the other bodies.

(48) APRIL 6, 1914. (48)

Clip out your coupons neatly, and fill them out clearly and plainly, remembering that in the event of a tie for any prize between two or more contestants, neatness and clear writing will win the judges' favor. The picture is to be a part of the coupon. Do not detach the coupon from the picture.

Send no answers whatever to the Advocate until the contest is ended by the publication of Picture No. 70. Any answers received before that time will be destroyed and will not be counted. Read the rules carefully.

Rules of the Booklovers' Contest.

Any person may compete in this contest who lives either in Licking, Delaware, Knox, Coshocton, Muskingum, Perry, Fairfield or Franklin counties, Ohio, except employees of the Advocate or members of their families.

Answers to the picture must be written upon the coupon blank which will be printed every day with each picture during the seventy publication days the contest will last. Both picture and blank must be clipped from the paper, and the blank properly filled in with the name of book and the author's name together with the name and address of the contestant written clearly and plainly in the space provided. Not more than one person's name may be written on any coupon.

Each picture will represent the title of only one book, but there may be some pictures that suggest the title of several books. For the benefit of contestants, and to allow for this variety of solution, any contestant may give as many as five answers to any picture, at will, but not more than one solution may be written on any coupon. If the contestant gives two answers as likely to include the correct one, two coupons must be used; if three answers, three coupons, and so on.

In each instance, whether the contestant gives one answer or five answers to any picture, both the pictures and coupon must be used for each of the answers; and not more than five answers to any picture will be permitted. If any one of the five answers that may be given to any picture is correct, the contestant will be credited for the correct solution and will not have the incorrect ones counted against his or her chances. Prizes will be awarded to every contestant, by the Contest Judges, who sends in the largest number of correct answers upon the smallest number of coupons. Thus, if a contestant gives the correct answers to 70 of the pictures and uses only 70 coupons, that contestant will rate higher in the prize awards than one who uses 140 coupons or any higher number up to 250 for supplying the 70 correct answers. If two or more persons, supplying the same number of correct answers, have used the same number of coupons for their answers, the highest rating will be given to the one whose answers are most neatly prepared, in the opinion of the judges.

No contestant will be allowed to submit more than one set of answers, which must include not less than 70 or more than 250 coupons, with accompanying pictures. Positively no solution may be sent in to the Contest Editor until every one of the seventy pictures has been printed. Answers in complete sets, as just specified above, will then be received in this office, and should be addressed to "Contest Editor," Booklovers' Contest, Advocate, Newark Ohio. The awards will be made strictly according to the correctness of each set of answers, and the correctness shall be determined by the Finding List, the catalogue issued by us as governing the Booklovers' Contest. This catalogue can be obtained from the Advocate office for 25c (27 cents if by mail), and will include in its 5000 titles every one used in the contest. Awards will be announced in this newspaper after the close of the contest.

It is not absolutely necessary to send in solutions on blanks clipped from the Advocate, as duplicate pictures may be drawn by the contestant. If he or she so desires, or duplicate blanks may be obtained at the office of the Newark (Ohio) Advocate.

IF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER BOTHER

Take a glass of Salts to flush out your kidneys and neutralize irritating acids

Kidney and Bladder weakness result from uric acid says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever. Here you have a pleasant, efficient lithia-water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.

Licking County Agricultural Society Completes Preparations For This Year's Big Exposition

The Licking County Agricultural society held its regular April meeting in the convention room of the court house last Saturday. The meeting was attended by every member of the society, consumed the entire day, and much business was transacted, looking toward the greatest fair the county has in the history of old Licking. Every member present reports the outlook the very best. The meeting was called to order by the president, James J. Hill, with the new secretary, Ed. M. Larson at the desk.

The W. C. T. U. of Licking county had a committee of four members with Mrs. C. C. Metz as chairman, before the board, and asked that a lease be given the W. C. T. U. for space to erect a ladies rest room to cost about $300, upon the fair ground this coming summer. The permission was readily granted by the board, and Members T. E. Adams, J. M. Jones, and C. D. Lake were named by the board to confer with the committee, select the site and make such other arrangements as are necessary.

Truman Baughman of Johnstown appeared before the Board and asked that some additions be made to the poultry list. The request was granted, and Ed. Larson and T. E. Adams were appointed to revise this part of the list and make such addition as seem necessary.

Some little time was given to a local newspaper man in speaking of the advisability of giving permission for the erection of a Hungarian-Romanian village. The board took this matter under advisement.

J. C. Williams of Hanover and S. L. Dushelmer of Franklin township appeared on behalf of the Granges of the county, and submitted a score card by which the Grange exhibits are to be judged at the coming fair. The board very cheerfully adopted the suggested score, and it is likely that the number of Grange exhibits will be greatly increased. An effort will also be made to secure an agricultural exhibit from the Licking County Children's Home and the Infirmary.

The board also voted to continue its membership in the Ohio Fair Circuit, and The American Trotting Association, thus keeping up its progressive spirit.

An application was also made to the Ohio Experiment Station for its great Agricultural Extension Exhibit, which will likely be granted, and which will be more spoken of later.

Two running races, one for Thursday and Friday, and a Shetland pony race were added to the speed program. The pony race will be confined to Licking county.

The proposition of Hon. Frank G. Warden of Chicago to guarantee an $800 stake race for the last day of the fair was accepted. This will prove a great drawing card to race horse men.

Many improvements will be made to the buildings on the society's grounds. An additional ladies' toilet will be built, and a new bridge across from the race track to the north will also be constructed.

Several additions were also made to various parts of the premium list which was thoroughly revised.

The heads of the different departments were also instructed to employ entirely new judges in their several departments.

An entirely new class was created to wit: Amateur hand china painting, which was done to give our home artists a chance to exhibit.

The rule to require all premium stock to parade the speed ring from 11:30 to 12:30 on Friday will be enforced this year, and the racing will begin promptly at 12:30, which will insure completion in time for country people to get home earlier.

Five hundred dollars was appropriated for "free attraction," which with the advertising matter was left in the hands of the secretary, Mr. Larson, who states that the free attractions will be of a high class and strictly moral.

The board also voted to send a Licking county "corn boy" to Washington this fall at an expense of $50.

The following heads of the departments were appointed by the president: C. D. Lake, superintendent of grounds; T. E. Adams, vice president; superintendent of police, feed and straw, Frank Hartman; superintendent of gates, J. C. Morrison; superintendents of 1st, or horse departments, T. E. Adams and A. D. Seward; 2d, or cattle department, Samuel Walker; 3d, or sheep department, W. J. Tharp; 4th, or hog department, Fred H. Stevens; 5th, or fine arts, flowers, needlework, baking, &c. department, J. M. Jones; 6th, horticultural and dairy department, Samuel S. Cooper; 7th, poultry, farm implements &c., department, J. W. Hankinson. On motion the board adjourned to meet at the call of the president.

HORSE RUNS AWAY OVERTURNING RIG IN PUBLIC SQUARE

Taking fright at an interurban car which passed it near Main and Pine street intersection, Monday morning, a delivery horse belonging to John Miller, South Second street meat dealer, broke its bridle and ran toward the public square, leaving in its path crowds of gapers, frightened pedestrians. Vehicle of all sorts cleared the way as the horse came tearing madly east on West Main street, with the delivery wagon swaying to and fro behind it. As it crossed the car track on South Park place the horse fell and the rig was overturned. A bent front axle on the wagon was practically the only damage noticeable. The horse was apparently unhurt, and the driver had not entered the wagon when the horse started to run so he also escaped.

LOST A PURSE CONTAINING HER ENGAGEMENT RING

Mrs. Charles W. Miller of 494 Hudson avenue met with a misfortune Saturday that has many elements of unusual grief to her. She was walking along the east side of Hudson avenue in front of R. F. Collins' residence, north of Locust street, when her husband called her attention to a flock of soot on her face. She took her handkerchief from a handbag to remove it and she believes at that time the misfortune overtook her. In the handbag she had a small purse in which she had a cold watch and charm, and four valuable diamond finger rings. It is supposed, she pulled this out with her handkerchief. At any rate she had gone only a few steps when she noticed the bag was unfashioned. She closed it and went to the B. and O. depot, where she got on a train for Pataskala to spend the day with her sisters, Mrs. Charles E. Courtier and Mrs. A. R. Webb. It was then she discovered her loss.

The contents of the purse have a considerable intrinsic value, but above this Mrs. Miller treasured them for the associations connected with them. The watch and chain were presented to her several years ago by the members of the Second Presbyterian church congregation at the time she and her family moved to Mankato, Minn., as a testimonial in appreciation of her services as leading soprano in the church choir for many years. One of the rings also had tender memories, having been her engagement ring.

It is needless to say that the finder will be given a reward that will be entirely satisfactory to him if he returns the purse and contents to Mrs. Miller, 104 Hudson avenue, or to Attorney C. W. Miller in the Block-Zartman building in West Main street.

CITY CHURCHES ARE OBSERVING THE HOLY WEEK

Sunday was solemnized in the Christian world as Palm Sunday, in commemoration of Christ's triumphant entry into Jerusalem when palms were spread in His path by the faithful. As is customary a great number of palm branches were distributed in the Catholic and Episcopal churches.

Palm Sunday marks the first day of Holy Week, which is the concluding seven days of the Lenten season. On Thursday of Holy Thursday will take place, and in both Catholic churches, the procession of Holy Sacrament will be given at the eight o'clock mass, and the Sacrament will be exposed until Friday morning. On Friday morning the ceremony of the Crucifix will be held and on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, the Stations of the Cross will be said, and meditations on the Passion and Death of Christ read.

On Holy Saturday in the morning the annual blessing of the Paschal candle, and holy water and oils for use during the year in the church will take place.

St. Francis de Sales church which has been undergoing extensive repairs and has been entirely redecorated will be completed for Easter Sunday.

THE EASIEST WAY TO END DANDRUFF

Stop Falling Hair and Itching Scalp.

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy, every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

If you want to keep your hair looking rich, dark, all means get rid of dandruff, for nothing destroys the hair so quickly. It not only starves the hair and makes it fall out, but it makes it stringy, straggly, dull, dry, brittle and lifeless, and everybody notices it. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

ATHLETES BUSY PREPARING FOR BASEBALL AND FOOTBALL

Denison Baseball Team Will Likely Play Game Here With a Local Team Soon — Arrangements Have Been Made for Ohio State Ball Nine to Take Three Day Trip Next Week—Other College Talk.

(By J. A. Ward.)

Denison will probably ask a Newark city team for a game here before the opening of the regular season on April 18. The Baptist nine have been hindered considerably by the weather in their early practice sessions and have not been able to secure much outside training.

As soon as the weather permits Beaver field will be combed over and put in condition for the season. Denison has a better home schedule this season than has been the case for a number of years. All the strongest college nines of Ohio will be seen in Granville.

Ohio State Gets Games.

Ohio State ball tosets will make a trip in southern Ohio next week. Games will be played with Miami on Thursday, Wilberforce on Friday and Springfield on Saturday. Coach St. has planned to take twenty-four players on the trip.

Correspondent Ducked.

Notre Dame students ducked a correspondent for one of the Chicago Papers in the campus pool early one morning last week, because he originated a fake story that Ray Eichenlaub, all Western halfback, was losing his sight due to "pink eye." Another proof that it pays to tell the truth.

Cincinnati Spring Football.

Spring football practice will begin this week at the university of Cincinnati. But one man will be lost from last season's eleven. George Little, former assistant at Ohio State will have charge of the practice. He has a wealth of material to work with and Cincinnati should capture a high place in the Ohio conference standing next fall.

Harvard Enlarges Stands.

Interest in baseball at Harvard seems to be increasing; arrangements have been completed to extend the first and third base bleachers at Soldiers field so as to accommodate 1200 more patrons of the game.

A MEDICINE OF MERIT.

A proprietary medicine, like everything else that comes before the public has to prove its merits. The law of the survival of the fittest applies in this field as in others. The reason for the tremendous success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is because it has been fulfilling a real human need for forty years, so that today thousands of American women owe their health and happiness to the marvelous power of this famous medicine, made from roots and herbs—nature's remedy of woman's herbs—nature's remedy for woman's ills.

SIX INCH CAKE PRESSED TO ONE AND RISES AGAIN

One of the most unique advertising "stunts" ever seen in Newark was that given Saturday evening by Prof. E. J. Stevenson, who for three days had been demonstrating in Stewart Bros. and Alward's window in the Arcade, the merits of a gas range, called the New Method.

During the day a radical sponge cake had been baked, which was 17 inches in diameter, six layers high and rising 6 inches from the bottom of the pan. At eight o'clock two planks about twenty feet long were placed at right angles across the top of the cake and about thirty-five women stood upon these planks, their combined weight of course, resting upon the top of the cake. This was mashed down until it was just an inch in thickness, when the weight was removed. Mirabile dictu! The cake immediately began to again rise, and in a short time had attained the original dimensions. It was then cut and pieces passed to the crowd as souvenirs.

It is estimated that over four thousand people were packed in the Stewart Bros. & Alward company's store at the time of the demonstration, besides the mass of humanity which jammed the Arcade in front of the window.

HONEST TRAMPS DISCOVERED BY GROCER BROWN

You may sing of your road knights burglarious.

You may warble of robbers so bad, But here is a yarn quite hilarious.

That would make old Diogenes glad. Once upon a time—to be exact, last Saturday night—there were three jolly hoboes, bound for the gay and smoky city of "fifty-seven varieties," who had in their possession but a small portion of the U. S. medium of exchange called kale. Before boarding a passing freight which might convey them to Pittsburgh, the trio desired food.

Being honest men—which was not discovered until later—the trio desired to purchase with their small means enough food to satisfy the longings of the inner man until such time as they should be able to escape the railroad "bulls" and land safely in the Pittsburgh railroad yards.

Seeing a bright light in the John Brown grocery, 173 East Main, the three hid themselves there to purchase beans, canned goods of other kinds nutritious, cheese, crackers and bread.

These three "bees" hadn't looked up the grocer's Saturday night closing rules, so they walked into the grocery. For five minutes, or thereabout, they waited for a clerk. They called, whistled, and stamped.

Nobody came.

They went. But it chanced as they departed a woman saw them leaving. The next moment she espied Grocer Browne and his good wife enroute down town. She called to them, informing them that the three men "going there" had just left Mr. Browne's grocery.

Being surprised that the three had been so good as to take their departure and at the same time leave the grocery when they might have taken at least a small part of it, he called to them. They told him how it happened. He said:

"Boys, come on back to the store and we'll look it over."

Being honest men, and as it wasn't train time yet, they went back with him.

Grocer Browne opened his cash register and found that over $100 in cash was still safe and nothing else missing. Then he said:

"Boys, vass rollen se haben?"

The boys replied: "Food." Thereupon, Grocer Browne filled a basket with dainties and good things, handed it to the trio, and bade them adieu, thanking them for their honesty, declining their remittance.

Before leaving the store, Grocer Browne made sure the doors were locked, lest some of less honorable intentions should chance to walk within.

SKIN ERUPTIONS

Evidence of Impure Blood and a Run-Down Condition.

When the blood becomes thin, poor, devitalized nature cries out through such external evidence for help, and the safest, surest and most helpful remedy we know is Vinol.

This is because it is a combination of the two most famous tonics—the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil (without the oil) and tonic iron for the blood. Vinol strengthens the digestive organs, creates a hearty appetite, purifies and enriches the blood, creates strength.

Mrs. Helen Wingate, St. Louis, Mo., says: "I was in a very poor health, nervous and run-down, and nothing in the way of medicine did me any good until my druggist recommended Vinol. It built up my health, restored strength and I feel that I owe my life to Vinol. I cannot praise it too highly."

We say positively there is nothing like Vinol to purify and enrich the blood and build up weak, run-down people. If it should fail in your case we will return your money. Frank D. Hall, Druggist, Newark, O.

BOXERS ARE OVERPAID DECLARES N. Y. AUTHORITY

Percentage Basis of Payment Is Favored By Boxing Commissioner J. R. Price—$2,000,000 Expended For Boxing in Last Two Years By Empire State Enthusiasts.

"Boxers receive too much money," usually lost money. In New York the according to a recent statement made by James R. Price, boxing commissioner of New York. He would like to see the fighters work on a percentage basis. In the last two years $2,000,000 was expended by the enthusiasts of New York state to witness boxing events. A similar amount was spent by baseball fans in both the major and minor leagues of the state in the same length of time. Notwithstanding the large sum expended by fight fans, the clubs managing the contests have continued to lose money.

Garden A. C., the largest club in the metropolis, lost money simply because the fighters demanded the lions share of the gate receipts. At present there is a bill before the assembly to repeal the boxing law in New York. Commissioner Price has submitted a report of the conditions existing. There is no doubt concerning the popularity of the sport but it would be much better declares the commissioner if the boxers would agree to work on a percentage plan and also, if the boxing halls were improved for the comfort of the fans.

Increased Assessments And Reduced Tax Rates

(Ohio State Journal.)

It is often questioned whether the tax levying authorities will not take the increased duplicate as the opportunity for them to get more money regardless of the rights of the people to pay less. This fear seems to be combatted in a statement from the state tax commission, to the effect that the rates once made must be submitted to them, and they will see that the honest assessment of property does not work an additional burden on the people, but otherwise rather.

They say in their statement that "real estate values were tremendously increased in 1910, but the rates were lowered and the majority of realty owners paid less taxes." And this is made simply as an illustration of what will occur when a great increase of personal property takes place. This is correct reasoning. The increase in the valuation of realty reduced rates; so will the increase of personalty reduce rates.

Thus every taxpayer is interested in having a full and fair assessment and every effort is being made to have that done. It may not be fully done this year. A great reform is a growth. We are taking a big step this year. Another step or two will establish an honest assessment in Ohio, something that is more needed than anything we can think of.

Cuyhoga County Endorses Gov. Cox

Whereas the Hon. James M. Cox, platform of principles adopted by the governor of the state, has devoted himself with conspicuous zeal and energy to the carrying out of the Democratic State convention at which he was nominated for the office of governor, and

Whereas, many helpful and progressive laws have, in response to his leadership, been added to the statutes of this state, the platform promises of our party redeemed, and the general business affairs of the state administration with honesty and efficiency, and

Whereas, it will soon be time to make nominations for the office of governor to be voted on at the fall election in the present year.

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, as workers in the Democratic organization of Cuyhoga county, and as voters and citizens in said county, do hereby commend the administration of Governor Cox and urge upon citizens of the state generally his re-nomination and re-election.

Another G. O. P. Split.

It is vastly amusing to read the comment of Republican newspapers and spellbinders on the perfectly awful split in the Democratic party produced by the canal tolls issue and at the same time to note the complete omission of any reference to the even more serious disruption of the G. O. P. on the same point. Let us put the matter into a tabular form that it may be clear even to the clouded intelligence of a Republican organ.

Vote against

Members of House	party	per cent
Democrats	289	52
Republicans	123	25

It thus appears that the G. O. P. split was wider by several feet than that of the Democracy. What made it even more serious was that the 20.3 per cent. who refused to follow Floor Leader Mann embraced the Congressional flower of the party, the men of brains and independence from New England and the Northwest who give the minority what little character it has in the house. It remained for the boss-ridden Republicanism of Pennsylvania to cast a solid vote against the national honor.

And the worst is still to come! Wait until the vote is taken in the Senate. There the Republicans of brains and force are even more strongly with the President. Senators Root, Lodge, Burton, Sherman and others of that stamp are all for the repeal and will cast their ballots for it. The split will be even wider in the house. Poor old G. O. P.!

Thus with the Progressives, and its own ranks disrupted on an issue where it has sought to take a dishonorable advantage! It's hypocrisy receiving just punishment.

The Spirit of Arbor Day.

Should not the Arbor Day spirit reach much farther than the setting out of a few trees and shrubbery? Could it not also be profitable to set aside as a clean-up day for the country village, churches and school houses? There are signs of every kind on beautiful trees, on fences, on stables and other small buildings which have been placed that might be removed. Rubbish of all kinds, ash piles, exposed manure, dead branches of trees and much other unsightly trash, that has accumulated during the winter can be cleaned up. It is such things as these that mar the beauty already created by trees. Although Arbor Day is set aside for the planting of trees and protection of birds, its significance would be greatly increased if the community is also beautified by cleaning it up.

In commenting on the probable vote in the Senate on the Panama Canal tolls question the Boston Herald, one of the standpatters, says that "the Republican strength will probably break about evenly" and adds:

When such Republicans as Root and Lodge and Weeks—from the Atlantic seaboard and deeply interested in the welfare of our merchant marine—turn in to support the President, his opponents can hardly make a political issue of it.

The Philadelphia Record asks "why ignore Senator Penrose, Penn sylvania's stand-patter, 'the greater living exponent of Republicanism'?" If he opposes the President, as he has promised to do, his party will have to stand with him, regardless of the course of such minor politician as Root and Lodge.

Careful Scrutiny Of Expenditures Under Tax System

Commissioner Peckinpaugh Thinks Honest Carrying Out of Law Will Solve Problems—State Body Will Insist Upon Lowering of Tax Rates.

Equal distribution of the tax burden and a careful and economic expenditure of all public funds, are the most important features in connection with the financing of a taxing district, says A. B. Peckinpaugh, member of the state tax commission, in a statement issued Saturday afternoon on the taxing laws of the state, and especially the Warnes law, which has been so bitterly attacked within the past few months.

Mr. Peckinpaugh says:

"Indicative of the feeling of the people on the subject, numerous inquiries have reached the tax commission as to whether there is any authority which can control the tax rate, in the face of a certainty that there will be an enormous increase in the tax duplicate for the year 1914."

"It is not my custom to make public statements of any opinions which I may entertain relative to taxation problems, but the importance of this matter and the seeming lack of information in regard to it, would seem to warrant a departure from this rule."

There are just two important things in connection with the finances of a taxing district whether it be state, county, city, township or school district, which should be scrutinized with the greatest care and strongly insisted upon by the people who are required to contribute, by way of taxation, to the support of the taxing district:

"First. The equal distribution of the tax burden upon the taxpayers."

"Second. A careful and economical expenditure of all public funds."

"The one is of no more importance than the other. The people are beginning to realize that a strenuous attempt is being made to obtain equality in the tax burden by placing every form of taxable property upon the tax duplicate at its true value in money. They are beginning to realize that the change from the old elective assessors to the appointive ones, accomplished by the enactment of the Warnes law, has already made a good start in that direction and in time will accomplish that which-to-be desired end, as completely as it is possible to do."

"Realization of this fact has brought about the in the iries concerning the second above stated proposition. It is desired now to know whether tax rates are to remain the same as under the lower valuation, and whether the tax spenders will be permitted to collect and spend just so much additional money instead of lowering the rate and conducting the affairs of the taxing district by the use of the same amount of money as in the past."

"Taxing authorities, such as county commissioners, city and village councils and boards of education, are required to submit to the county budget commission detailed estimates of the amount of money required for each separate purpose. This is the beginning of the procedure which results in the tax levy. There seems to be a disposition to expect the tax commission to force local authorities to keep their tax levies down. This is an attempt to come at the matter from the wrong end."

"Every officer concerned in making the tax levy, all the way up to the members of the budget commission, is responsible to the people for his acts in this highly important branch of the public service. The people should and I believe will, when they fully understand the importance of it, follow every step in the process from the estimates of the local authorities to the final action of the budget commission in fixing the rates, and hold each one responsible for his action, if any extravagance is permitted to creep in by reason of an increased tax duplicate without a corresponding decrease in the rate."

"If a taxing district, by the exercise of proper economy, was able to conduct its affairs this year by the use of a certain sum, there can probably be no legitimate reason for collecting more than that for next year's use, and if the people insist that their local officers make estimates and tax levies upon the basis, it will result in a decrease in the rate corresponding with the increase in the duplicate, and the taxes of the taxpayer who has heretofore made an honest return of his property will be reduced as they should be."

"The Warnes law confers broad powers upon the tax commission in supervising the execution of the law relating to the levy and collection of taxes. The commission will insist upon the local officials complying with the strict letter of the law. If the tax rate is not reduced in a district in which there is a material increase in the duplicate, the burden of collection of the additional taxes will be placed upon the local officials, where it belongs."

On Second Thought

The case of the Louisiana man who placed a valuation of $60,000 on his whiskers presents no unusual aspect. The fact that a man is willing to disfigure himself by wearing whiskers indicates that he values them highly.

Eph Wiley, who is a Republican, scouts the story that Col. Goethals is T. R.'s choice for president. "Col. Goethals may be T. R.'s candidate," said Mr. Wiley yesterday, "but he is not his choice."

Most of those who quit baseball do so because the home team lost a game. But "Gyp" Wood quit baseball because he couldn't stand the conversation of the fans.

Our town is not much given to social gaiety. The undertaker is the only citizen who ever wears out a silk hat.

The reason dandruff accumulates on a married man's coat collar is that he is too busy making a living to brush it off.

Every drunkard pays two fines — the one imposed by nature and the one imposed by the community in which he lives.

Girls talk too much about marriage to suit the unmarried men.

Eph Wiley says that, considered as a spectacle, the woman who trims her own hair and the man who cuts his own hair are in the same class.

The moral in the case of the "oldest man," who died the other day is that one can attract considerable attention by living to be 115 years old.

The average man works four hours, sleeps eight and devotes the balance of the time to patting himself on the back.

The Circus.

They grease the circus wagons now, and exercise the spotted horses, and curry down the sacred cow—and this is a harbinger of course is. In training are the acrobats, those dauntless neck-and-shoulder riskers; the clowns invest in steeple hats, and sacrifice their winter whiskers. Full soon the own and only show will set forth from its winter quarters, and we shall to the big tent go.

and take our wives and aunts and darters. I've lived on earth a hundred years, and most things weary me and bore me, but every time the show appears, a glad sensation travels o'er me. I'll never be so beastly old that I unmoved can see the circus, with chariots of red and gold, and flaming gents who deftly work us. I like to watch the lion track around his lair in futile rages, to see the camel and the yak, the lighthouse monkeys in their cages, I like to see the hippo swim like mermals, in the dirty water, then turn a fond admiring glim upon the warthog and the otter. Without the circus genial spring would be a tame and plotless story; so come, oh circus, and bring red lemonade and peanuts hoary.

Contest Editor's Query Column

The Advocate will be glad to answer all legitimate questions regarding the contest through the Contest Editor's query column. Questions may be sent by mail or telephone but the answers will be printed in this column so that no contestant will have any advantage over another.

L. B. Hanover—In picture No. 7 the artist has not indicated what the woman is holding in her right hand. Pay no attention to what the picture does not show. In No. 10 the girl is holding either a parasol or umbrella.

An out of town Booklovers' contestant writes to the Advocate in part as follows:

"I have participated in three Booklovers' contests in one of which I won a prize. Experience has shown me that after one has worked hard on the pictures oneself lists of probable answers are of great assistance, although it is folly to depend upon them entirely. In justice to out of town contestants I think you should publish advertisements of persons offering to sell lists of answers as did the Cleveland Leader. It is most unfair that residents of Newark should have the great advantage over other contestants that they now have. They can get for nothing the lists being published by your local merchants. Everybody ought to have that same privilege. One of your merchants has offered to sell to out of town contestants the lists that he is giving to Newark people. He ought to give the list to any body who will send him a stamped envelope.

"Now, if there are persons not giving but selling lists of answers won't you publish their names and addresses so that out of town people may have an approximately equal chance with Newark people? I have worked hard on the pictures thus far.

"Is picture No. 32 supposed to represent a street in Newark, or has it any local meaning. In No. 16 does the black mark across the face of one of the boys represent anything? Kindly answer these questions in your paper.

Answering the last question first, Ninth street is a Newark street, but that fact does not give a Newark person any advantage whatever. Pay no attention to the single mark in No. 16. What does the picture represent?

The Advocate has declined to publish advertisements for so-called puzzle experts but has given the names of local people who are posting their own solutions of the pictures. The Advocate has no controversy with those who want to solve the pictures for their friends or their customers, but it does not want to advertise "answers" for sale and after the contest ends have somebody complain that they bought "answers" that were not "answers" after all. NOBODY knows all the answers and if anyone offers solutions they are only that person's own estimate of the pictures.

Mr. U. O. Stevens posts one answer every day in his window. Mr. A. L. Rawlings posts two or more answers in his window. The Newark Electrical company is posting from three to ten answers for each picture every day. A Newark man is advertising that he will at the end of the contest print a list of 5 or more answers to each picture and is advertising under the name of "Solution Co., Box 111, Newark, O." While the Advocate declined to accept his announcement for reasons above given the address is here given for those who may care to obtain his solutions. It should be remembered, however, that all "probable answers" are merely the author's own estimate of the pictures.

Study the pictures yourselves and do not depend upon probable answers given by some other person. Anybody can begin today as well as at any time.

RESISTANCE TO DISEASE

Why is it that one person can work all day standing in cold water, slush and snow with no harmful effect, while another with less exposure contracts colds, pneumonia, rheumatism, sciatica or something equally distressing and dangerous?

Because in the first case the body was in such perfect balance that there was "resistance" to disease. In the second there was lack of tone that invited ill health.

Keep your system toned up with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and foods that once distressed you will be harmless, exposure will bring no fears of rheumatism and neuralgia and even germ diseases need hardly to be dreaded.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills assist digestion, correct the lassitude, the palpitatio of the heart, shaky nerves and the pallor of face and lips that are the results of thin, impure blood.

Try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for anemia, rheumatism, neuralgia, nervousness. Take them as a tonic if you are not in the best physical condition and cultivate a resistance that will keep you well and strong. Get a box from the nearest drug store and begin this treatment now.

WORK OF BLIND

ON EXHIBITION

AT MAZEY STORE

"Blind, so blind that we shall never again see the light of day, able to work but no market for the things we make," was the cry of many a woman in Ohio until the merchants, press, ministers and women's clubs, co-operating with the State Commission of the Blind, undertook to change this state of affairs.

To show that the work of blind women is worth while and deserving of consideration a special exhibition is being held all this week at Maze's store.

Blind Woman Passing the Time Knitting.

"If we were blind," says Secretary Campbell of the Commission, "what would we not give to regain our sight. We cannot give back sight to those who made the things at this exhibition but we can make life a little brighter by purchasing some of the articles made by these worthy blind workers."

Madame Isobell's Beauty Lesson

LESSON VIII—PART V. THE HANDS—THEIR POSSIBILITIES.

Manicuring (Continued.)

Nails properly kept are a little every day and cutting is not necessary, but in the average case the operation is commenced by clipping the nails to the proper length and filing them into shape. The file is used, taking one side of the nail at a time, round them nicely, following the shape of the finger.

After the nails are the proper length and shape, soak them for from three to five minutes in the bowl of soapy water. This softens the skin about them so it may be easily manipulated. Now wipe the fingers gently and with the blunt end of the orange wood stick rub away any hard callous spots with the emery board closely away with the scissors any ragged bits of flesh. With the emery board smooth the skin about the base of the nail, but do this gently, so as not to injure or scratch the surface of the nail.

The ends of the nails seem rough, smooth them with the emery board. After this is done the finger tips should be rubbed into the soapy water and cleaned. The nail brush, if they are not perfectly clean, put a bit of cotton wool on the pointed end of the orange wood stick, dip it in the peroxide of hydrogen and rub under and so at the nail and the ends of the nails.

The final step is to cover the nails with nail paste or powder and polish with the brush, taking one nail at a time. Wash the nails again to remove the excess of powder or paste; they should now be free, polished, perfect in shape and free from any rough spots. To the hands once a week a few minutes' daily care of the nails is all that is necessary.

In the daily care of the nails avoid the use of the nail file. Rub every day. Never clean them with a metal instrument; use an orange wood stick and be careful not to press this too far under the nail as to injure the base of the nail. To avoid this have always on your dressing table a bottle of strong soap and water, a bit of cotton on the end of your stick, and in this and clean the nails with it. It will not work as quickly as peroxide, but the constant use of peroxide will dry the nails and render them brittle.

NOTE. The subject of "Manicuring" was largely covered in the last article. Lesson VIII is divided into five parts and should be read through out to obtain full information on the subject.

Madame Isobell's new lesson will be published in the Newark Daily Advocate. Madame Isobell will use the present book fashioning the nails, etc., etc., etc. The new ones were originated in Paris, and were

TRUCK FARMING IN WASHINGTON CO. IS A BIG INDUSTRY

Editor Advocate:—I have been in Washington county, O., looking over some of the farms offered for a county experiment farm and I find in some sections quite a change from a few years ago.

A few years ago the owner of one farm offered it for sale at $900. Four years ago Mr. Ballou went on this farm and began pruning and spraying the orchard, following this up later by fertilization and orchard culture work. Now the owner wants $9,000 for the farm. True the owner has built a new house that probably cost him $2,000 or may be a little more. But there are some changes along the Muskingum river that are not all due to the work of the experiment station.

The truck growing business has developed and the farms have been divided and many new houses have been built all along the river as far up as Beverly.

These truck growers have organized the Marietta Truck Growers association and this will be the fifth year that their produce has been distributed through one firm at Pittsburgh. This does not mean that all their produce goes to Pittsburgh, but is handled this way. The secretary of the association notifies the firm that one, two and as sometimes happens, 15 cars are loaded. The Pittsburgh firm has its finger on the market pulse of the country and wires back "send one car load to Columbus, two to Cleveland, or maybe all to Pittsburgh," wherever the market needs the stuff. In the old way all might be sent to one place, glutting the market and much of the produce would go to a dump while other markets were entirely bare.

The interurban road from Marietta to Beverly has been a great factor in this development. This railway stops its cars at any place along the line and takes on produce to be sent to Marietta, thus reducing the cost to the truckers in getting the produce to market.

The agricultural commission was trying to find a piece of land 12 to 15 acres suitable for carrying on trucking experiments, but only one piece could be found suitable for sale and it is miles out of town, at $600 per acre. This is what the trucking business the interurban and the Ohio Experiment station orchard work has done for the value of the land in Washington county.

CARY W. MONTGOMERY.

SIX THOUSAND ATTEND SCHOOL.

Farmers in Ohio are making a thorough study of their business. This is shown by the fact that they will hold meetings lasting an entire week and devoted entirely to learning more about the principles underlying better farming. The farmers' wives go along too and study home-making. During the past winter more than 6,000 farm men and women attended these "Extension Schools" as they are called, both morning and afternoon for five days. They were held in 43 counties. The teachers were members of the faculty of the Ohio State University. Since this number of men and women, who are heads of families and responsible members of their respective communities, could not come to the University for even a week, the University went to them. The salaries and traveling expenses of the instructors were paid by the University, but their hotel bills and the hall rent were paid by the people who attended the school. In order to raise this money the men paid a dollar tuition for the week and the women paid 50 cents. In most places the attendance was so large that a part of the money paid in was returned to the ticket holders. The subjects discussed in the schools were Animal Husbandry, Farm Crops, Soil Fertility, Dairying, and Horticulture. Extension Schools will be held again next winter along the same lines. These one-week meetings are under the direction of A. B. Graham at Columbus. As there is never money enough to grant all the applications, some preference is given those filed early. Already a number of petitions have been sent in from various parts of the state.

Some people waste entirely too much time waiting for the unexpected to happen.

CROWDS VISIT FLOWER SHOW AT HALBROOKS

Hundreds of Newark people took advantage of the delightful Sunday afternoon weather yesterday to visit the Halbrook greenhouse where the annual spring flower show is in progress. The nine large greenhouses were resplendent in their bright spring colors and many beautiful flowers were in bloom. Mr. Halbrook asserts that there were more than 100,000 blooms in the various departments and after a trip through the plant no one doubted his word. The Easter lilies and carnations were unusually beautiful, hundreds of these flowers being ready for the annual Easter rush. Thousands of plants for flower beds are about ready for the spring beautifying of Newark homes.

THE PRESIDENT'S HISTORY FOR THE BLIND.

President Wilson's work, "A History of the American People," is soon to be printed in braille for the use of the blind. It will be recalled that braille, invented in 1829, is one—and probably the most used—of the three methods of characters adopted for sightless readers. The cost of producing these books is at present very great, as it takes an operator nearly an hour to punch out a plate containing four hundred words. One small volume of "Ivanhoe," for instance, which is sold in England for sixpence, when reproduced in braille fills six large volumes which cost nearly five dollars to manufacture. It will be easy to imagine how many pages the five volumes of "A History of the American People" will cover—one of the longest works ever printed for the blind.

A Question to the City Board of Health.

Is it possible that our city health board is going to face the abandonment of the swimming pool in connection with the White Athletic Field? Who is violating the law? Surely there is no sanitary sewer emptying its contents into Raccoon creek, for there is no sanitary sewer out there. If a drainage sewer pipe flows into the creek and has been made a sanitary sewer against the law, what is the duty of our health officers?

The health authorities should not forget that thousands of citizens have helped to make this playground possible. They should try to protect its use rather than destroy it. The swimming facilities are the one great asset of this field. It is quite certain that the public will insist upon its protection if the board of education does not.

CREATION DRAMA IN CHICAGO THEATRE

Chicagoans Astonished—Seats
Free and No Collections.

PASTOR RUSSELL IS HERE

In Forenoon Discourse He Discussed That Part of Creation's Drama Which Relates to the Typical Feature of the Passover Lamb—Typically, He Says, It Has Spoken the Divine Plan For Centuries—Blessings For Christian Church—Blessings For Jewish Church—And For All Nations and Kindreds, Tongues and Peoples. Kingdom Soon to Be Established.

PASTOR RUSSELL

Chicago, Ill., Apr. 13.—Pastor Russell is here for the purpose of inaugurating his Photo-Drama of Creation at the Auditorium Theatre, the name of which is a guarantee that the Drama of Creation is in every respect first class.

One of the remarkable things in connection with this Drama, which is now running in thirty cities and witnessed by about 30,000 people daily, is that the best seats are used—and all seats are free and no collections lifted.

Asked for an explanation, Pastor Russell declared that the Photo-Drama of Creation merely presents the Gospel of the Bible, which ought always to be free. He said he has no objection to other people taking up collections, but has found no authority in the Bible for doing so himself.

The Photo-Drama of Creation, he said, is financed by Christians who by it desire to re-establish faith in God and in the Bible as a Divine revelation. Pastor Russell's address was in the forenoon. The Drama was presented afternoon and evening and is to continue for some time. The text of the Pastor's discourse was:

"Christ our Passover is slain for us; therefore let us keep the feast." (1 Corinthians 5:7, 8.) He said:

For thirty-five centuries God's holiest people, Jewish and Christian, have with more or less directness, and more or less understanding, celebrated the Passover. But while many have recognized the form, few have looked deeper—into its real import. Those who see the real meaning of the Passover have great cause for gratitude to ward God and for confidence in the Bible, "the Word of God, which liveth and abideth forever." To understand the Passover means to understand the Plan of God in respect to humanity.

St. Paul reminds us that God's first intimations respecting His glorious purposes of mercy toward our race were given to Abraham. After God had tested his faith and obedience, He called Abraham His friend, and revealed to him in part things to come. The essence of the Divine Message of Peace was, "I will bless all the families of the earth through thy Seed"—thy posterity. (Galatians 3:8.) This, God's sure Word of Promise, was afterward confirmed with an Oath, because the time would be long, and therefore it would be necessary that the heirs of salvation should exercise faith in it.

The First Passover in Egypt.

Pastor Russell reviewed to his hearers the institution of the Passover. He reminded them that the children of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob were in bondage to Egypt, and God commanded Pharaoh to let them go, sending chastisement after chastisement upon the Egyptians, to compel his obedience. God's mercy in lifting one plague after another merely hardened Pharaoh's heart, until the final, the tenth plague. By this plague all the first-born of Egypt died in one night; while the first-born of the Israelites living in Egypt escaped because passed over. The Passover, therefore, memorializes the favored of God.

The first-born of Israel were subsequently exchanged for the tribe of Levi, which thereafter was counted especially the Lord's—some of the Levites serving as priests, sacrificing at His altar, and some of them doing an inferior service—assisting the priests in the work of instructing and blessing all the other tribes. Moses and Aaron were members of this priestly tribe, all of whom became leaders of God's chosen people in their subsequent experiences, particularly in their crossing of the Red Sea and, later, in crossing the Jordan—both typical events.

The Pastor explained that before the first-born of Israel could be passed over, a certain sacrifice was necessary, according to the Divine arrangement. A lamb without blemish was sacrificed, and its blood used to sprinkle the door-posts and lintels of all the dwellings of the Israelites. Each family or group repeated the same picture, sprinkling the blood of the lamb upon the door-posts and lintels, roasting the flesh, and later eating it with herbs and unleavened bread—ready for departure from Egypt for the land of Canaan. As the morning broke, the journey out of Egypt began. Later, all the host crossed the Red Sea, the waters of which returning engulfed the Egyptians, who had started in pursuit of them.

The Antitypical Passover.

The meaning of all this to the Christian is that God has promised deliverance from the power of Satan and the slavery of sin to all who are truly His people. These were under bondage when God sent forth His Son, Jesus, to be their antitypical Lamb—to die, "the Just for the unjust," and thus to give His flesh for the life of the world. As a result of that redemptive work, the Father highly exalted Him to the spirit plane, where He was before He was made flesh. Indeed, His resurrection was to a still higher nature—the Divine, far above men, angels, principalities, powers, etc.

The blood represents the life, as the Bible tells. The blood of the passover lamb thus typically represents the life which Jesus gave. The sprinkling of the blood upon the door-posts and lintels represents the part which must be experienced by all who belong to the Household of Faith. All such must trust, not in works of their own for justification before God, but in the work, the sacrifice, of Christ, who died for us, "the Just for the unjust." Not only must we exercise faith in the sense of entering into the Household of Faith, but additionally we must be of those who partake of the Lamb, who appropriate the merit of Christ's sacrifice by faith. All such are counted as being partakers of Christ's holiness, and are sharers with Him in the sufferings of this present time, and prospectively His joint-heirs in His Kingdom to come.

Thus, said the Pastor, has Israel's Passover found its antitype throughout this Gospel Age. From the time that Jesus died, as the Lamb of God to take away the sin of the world, to the present time, there has been a feast spread for those who are able to appreciate it. There has been a covering with the merit of His sacrifice for those who had faith to accept it. All such are counted members of the "Church of the First-born," whose names are "written in Heaven." (Hebrews 12:23.) This Church is not yet completed. Thank God! we may still sprinkle the blood of the Lamb upon the door-posts of our hearts, may still have imputed to us His precious merit, and still have the privilege of becoming members of the Church of the First-born.

But the Morning is near at hand. The First-born will soon be recognized of God. They will be "changed in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye." By resurrection power they will be made like unto their glorious Redeemer. They will begin their great work as the Royal Priesthood. Under the leadership of the great Prophet, Priest and King—Jesus—these under-priests, under-kings, under-prophets, will labor with Him in His great Messianic Kingdom work. These with the Redeemer will constitute the Spiritual Seed of Abraham, through whom God's blessing is to come to Natural Israel, and ultimately to every nation, people, kindred and tongue.

The great work of deliverance will require a thousand years—the period of Messiah's Reign. This deliverance is pictured by the passing through the Red Sea. God's mighty hand will be exercised on behalf of all who are truly His, during the thousand years. They will escape from the power of Satan and his hosts of sin, who will be restrained for a time. In the destruction of Pharaoh's hosts in the Red Sea, we find a pictorial prophecy of the destruction of Satan and all who are his—all who love sin and hate righteousness, all who war against God and His righteous arrangements.

Two Abrahamic Seeds.

First the natural, afterward the spiritual, is God's order, the Apostle tells us. (1 Corinthians 15:46.) In one sense of the word, the entire posterity of Jacob were the heirs of God's Promise to Abraham. The first privilege was guaranteed to them under the Law Covenant. But as God foresaw, the Jews were unable to keep that Law Covenant because, like the remainder of humanity, they are all imperfect, all sinners, and because God's Law is perfect—the measure of a perfect man's obedience and ability. But they were profited by their endeavors to keep the Law, and glorious characters were developed amongst them—Moses, David, the Prophets, and many of lesser prominence, who, as St. Paul declares, manifested their faith and obedience even unto death.—Hebrews 11:38-40.

These Ancient Worthies endured not in vain. They have the promise of a better resurrection than the remainder of their nation and the world. Theirs is to be a resurrection to human perfection. They are to constitute the nucleus of the earthly phase of Messiah's Kingdom. To His standard, thus set up in the world, will assemble gradually, not only the natural seed of Abraham, but all of humanity desiring God's favor and everlasting life.

Pastor Russell then stated that, before these blessings could come to Abraham and mankind in general, there must be a Spiritual Seed of Abraham. He showed that Jesus was Abraham's seed according to the flesh, but that as such He never could have accomplished His great Messianic work. It was necessary, he said, for the Man Christ Jesus to lay down His humanity sacrificially before He could be received to the glories of the Divine nature by resurrection power. So also it must be with all who will become joint-heirs with Jesus on the Heavenly plane.—2 Peter 1:4.

The testing of the loyalty of Jesus and all those of every nation who would be of the Spiritual Seed of Abraham has progressed now for eighteen centuries, and the Pastor believes it will soon be completed. The gathering of the Elect will complete this Age and inaugurate the New Dispensation, during which God's blessings through Messiah's Kingdom will fill the earth, superseding the curse which has rested upon mankind for six thousand years—six great Days. Messiah's New Dispensation will be the antitypical Sabbath Day, a thousand years long, in which Messiah will bring in everlasting righteousness, destroy all who love unrighteousness, and grant everlasting life to all the obedient.

Christ Our Passover.

John the Baptist, in announcing Jesus as the great Messiah, said, "Behold the Lamb of God, who taketh away the sin of the world." It is well that we should notice the difference between the taking away of the sin of the world and the taking away of the sin of the Church. The Church is described as the Church of the First-born, leaving the world to have the blessing of the after-born members of the same family of God. Only by close scrutiny can we discern the deep things of God. The Spirit was promised to guide Jesus' followers into an understanding, not merely of the outward or superficial, features of Gods' arrangement on man's behalf, but also into the deeper parts.

The sin of the world is the Adam's sin. By one man's disobedience sin entered the world. The penalty of that sin was not eternal to merit nor pains for. But as the Apostle explains, and as we also read in Genesis, the curse the penalty for sin is death. "Dying, thou shalt die." No one could be thoroughly released from that penalty of death—and completely resurrected out of death—except by the payment of a Ransom-price—the payment of his penalty. No member of the race could pay the penalty because every member was under that penalty himself. Hence God's compassion manifested itself in providing the Redeemer—a Ransomer. One capable of satisfying the claims of Justice and thus legally setting Adam and all of his race free from the death penalty—the curse.

But while the Lamb of God was to take away the sin of the whole world and give all an opportunity for Restoration, He will not be the Passover Lamb for the world. Jesus is our Passover—the Church's Passover Lamb. This shows the difference between the deliverance of the Church during this Age, and the future deliverance of the world during the Millennium. The Church is delivered or passed over by faith—through the imputation of the merit of the Redeemer. The Church class may, therefore, even now speak of sins forgiven and of having passed from death unto life—but not so the world. Indeed, the taking away of the sins of the world in the next Age will be on a totally different basis. The merit of the Redeemer will not be imputed to mankind. The world will not be justified by faith. The taking away of their sins will be actual, and their justification will be actual.

Special Privileges of the First-born.

The Church of the First-born has special privileges and blessings, as well as special trials. In the Passover type, the lives of the first-born were in jeopardy, while the lives of others of Israel were in no danger. This signifies in the antitype that the Church of the First-born will be liable to death at a time when the remainder of the world will not be thus liable. The reason for this is clear, in the light of other Scriptures, as we shall see.

The call of the Gospel Age the Apostle styles a "high calling," a Heavenly calling, because the Church is not under a law. Rather, a Heavenly reward is held up before the minds of some, and they are invited to enter into a Covenant with God, to follow such a course of life in the present time as will eventually bring them to the glorious prize set before them in the invitation. That prize is sometimes styled the Kingdom, and sometimes the Divine nature—and it includes both.

But if the reward is so great that Jesus called it the "pearl of great price," and St. Paul declared that he counted all other things as loss and dross in comparison, we should not be surprised to find the conditions, or terms, for obtaining it very stringent. Notice the stringency of the call: "Gather together My saints unto Me," saith the Lord, "those who have made a Covenant with Me by sacrifice." (Psalm 50:5.) Again, notice Jesus' words, "If any man will be My disciple, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow Me."

Dead to the World—And All.

From the foregoing Scripture, it will be noticed that the condition upon which any may become a member of the Church of the First-born is that he shall sacrifice his earthly nature. Only by faithfulness in thus sacrificing can he obtain the Heavenly nature. Unfaithfulness would hinder him from ever obtaining the new nature. As for the earthly nature, such gave up all right to it, in order that they may run in the sacrificial race for the spirit nature. Hence it is that the First-born are represented in the type as being exposed to death—annihilation.

Not so the world; for the world is only under Adamic condemnation. God has promised that through Christ that curse shall be removed. Hence of all the people in the world, the only ones who at the present time are in danger of going into extinction are those who have made a consecration to be the followers of Jesus.

Look back again at the type. There we see the lamb provided for all. There we see the blood upon the door-posts for all. But we see the first-born the only ones in danger. In the antitype, these, if passed over, will become the Church in Glory, the Royal Priesthood. How beautiful the picture! How solemn the thought of our opportunities and privileges, and responsibilities corresponding!

CHIEF FACTOR IN NATIONAL DEGENERACY.

A wave of degeneracy is sweeping the land, and its development threatens the physical vitality of the nation. Within a period of 50 years the population of the United States increased 230 per cent., while the number of insane and feeble-minded increased 950 per cent.

What is the cause of this degeneracy? A hundred different intermediate agencies may contribute to the undoing of the race, but back of them all stands alcohol as the chief degenerative factor. Statistics compiled by the leading insurance companies, and presented by Sir T. P. Whitaker in a report to the British parliament, show that out of every 1,000 deaths among the population at large, 440 are due to alcohol. This would mean a mortality from alcohol in the United States of 680,000 a year.

The great burden of drink is not borne by the drinker, but by the drinkers' children. In our studies among school children in New York city we find that 62 per cent. are the children of drinking parents, and that 91 per cent. of these children of drinking parents suffer from some functional or organic disease. If this percentage holds good over the entire country there are 18,000,000 children of a school age that are afflicted with functional and organic diseases, and less than two and a half millions of these are free from hereditary alcohol taint. A nation half diseased and half cannot live, but here we show three-fifths of the rising generation mentally and physically diseased.—Dr. L. Alexander MacNicholl.

STRIKES FROM THE SHOULDER.

(From an Address of MORRIS SHEPARD, Before the Texas Legislature After His Election as United States Senator.)

The liquor traffic is a peril to society because it undermines the health, the strength, and the integrity of man. It is a source of danger to posterity because the alcoholic taint foredooms the unborn millions to degeneracy and to disease. I shall oppose this scourge until my arm can strike no longer and my tongue can speak no more. I shall oppose it because I hear the cries of children who are hungering for bread. I shall oppose it because I see a mother's wasted face, her pale lips pleading with the besotted figure at her side. I shall oppose it because I see the staggering forms of men whose trembling hands hold but the ashes of their strength and pride. I shall oppose it because it mocks all manhood and makes of woman's virtue a commodity of the slums. I shall oppose it because I see its battle line outstretched across the globe, threatening the pure, the true, the good. I shall oppose it because its abolition will mean a new stability for the republic, a new radiance for the flag.

TRouble-MAKER

A Pittsburgh paper tells us that "one person out of every 95 in Pennsylvania was behind prison bars in 1911. Out of 707 prisoners receiving penitentiary sentence 80 per cent. were drinkers. Out of 10,807 prisoners sentenced to serve time in jails and workhouses over 85 per cent. were drinkers. Out of 3,670 persons sentenced to the Allegheny workhouse in 1912, 92 per cent. were drinkers. Father Penn's children who are dependent wholly or in part for support upon the taxpayers outnumber the combined armies of Meade and Lee at Gettysburg in 1863. The vast majority of them are the victims of John Barleycorn. One person out of every 45 in Father Penn's dominion is dependent either as a lunatic, pauper or criminal."

The drink traffic produces criminals, paupers, dependents and undesirables generally. The state pays the bills. The twentieth century taxpayer is waking up to the situation. He—and she—is moving to "put the liquor business out of the government and the government out of the liquor business."

ONE EXCEPTION.

Legitimate industries favorably affect each other. The liquor traffic unfavorably affects them all. The more it flourishes, the more they must decline. Its profits are taken from the merchant, and the manufacturers behind him; from the butcher, and the cattle raisers behind him; from the farmer, the miller, the baker, the builder, the shoemaker, the printer, the teacher, and the preacher. Every honest producer suffers from it. The country suffers from it. More than low tariff, or high tariff, or no tariff at all, it depreciates American industry.—A. A. Hopkins, Ph. D.

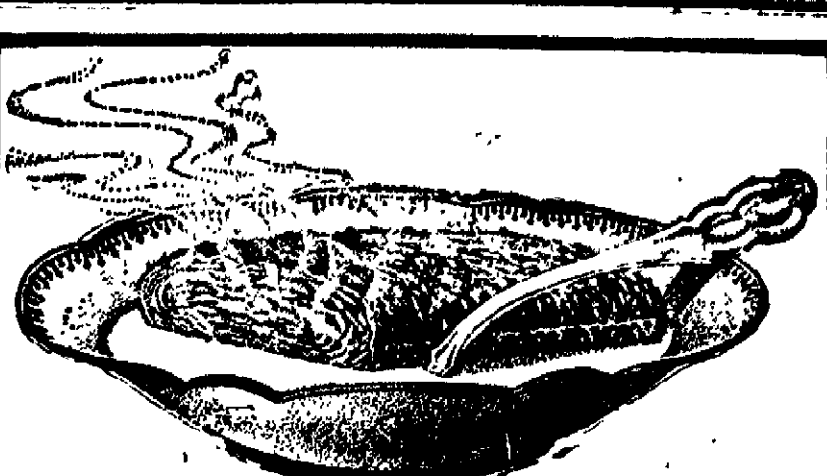

ALCOHOL AS ASHES.

In the production of alcoholic drinks the raw material is destroyed. Alcohol is not the outcome of a development or adaptation of food properties; it is the creature of destruction, obtainable only by the destruction of the natural properties of the subject. A lot of wood may be developed, altered or adapted so as to produce a table or a case for an organ or piano. Put the log into the fire, and all that will be left of it is ashes. So like wise alcohol is the ashes of the fruit, barley or corn.

Try the New External Treatment

Applied in Salve Form Over Throat and Chest Relieves by Inhalation and Absorption.

Vapor treatments are best for all inflammations of the air passages. The vapors carry the medication directly to the inflamed surface without disturbing the stomach as do internal medicines. A cheap and very convenient vapor treatment is a good application of Vick's Vapo-Rub Croup and Pneumonia Salve over the throat and chest covered with a warm flannel cloth. The body heat releases vapors of Thymol, Eucalyptol, Menthol, Camphor, and Pine Tar, that are inhaled with every breath, through the air passages to the lungs. These vapors open the air passages, loosen the phlegm, and heal the raw surfaces. If the cold is in the chest apply hot wet towels to open the chest. Vick's is then absorbed through the skin, taking out that tightness and soreness. A little Vick's applied over the nostrils and over the temples is very beneficial for head colds and catarrh and will relieve most cases of headache and neuralgia. Vick's is also excellent for Asthma, Hay Fever, and Bronchial Troubles. Three sizes at all dealers—25c, 50c, and $1.00

ARE ORGANIZING TO KEEP DOWN THE TAX RATE

Columbus, April 6.—The state tax commissioner received word Saturday to the effect that campaigns are being started in several parts of the state to enlist citizens in a movement to secure lower tax rates. In all of these places where the movement is well under way, there have been large increases in personal property shown by the reports of the district assessors. Those back of the movement ask that the people keep in close touch with the public officers who make demands for money and see that they are kept within the bounds of strict economy.

Darius Ross of Covilleville, a wealthy and prominent farmer, is leading the movement in Alford county, where more than a million dollars of new personal property has already been added to the duplicate.

In Shelby, Richland county, the personal property increase is $250,000 over last year, and the people there are organizing to see that the tax rate is kept down. Deputies Assessors May and Mott, who listed the property in Shelby, state that their task was an easy one because the property owners listed their assets readily with the idea in view of compelling the rate-makers to keep the taxes down.

The deputy assessor who listed property in Somerset, having 1286 population, has been placed at the head of the class by the state tax commission. Here is what he did: 1913 valuation of personal property, $263,160; 1914 valuation, $312,000, an increase of $109,840, a gain of 54 1/2 per cent.

HOW YOU MAY THROW AWAY YOUR GLASSES

Thousands who wear these "windows" may prove for themselves that they can dispense with glasses if they will get the following prescription filled at once: Go to any active drug store and get a bottle of Optima, fill a two-ounce bottle with warm water and drop in one Optima tablet. With this harmless liquid solution bathe the eyes two to four times daily, and you are likely to be astonished at the results right from the start. Many who have been told that they have astigmatism, eye-strain, catarract, sore eyelids, weak eyes, conjunctivitis and other eye disorders, report wonderful benefits from the use of this prescription. Get true prescription filled and use it; you may so strengthen your eyes that glasses will not be necessary. "Thousands who are blind, or nearly so, or who wear glasses would never require them if they had cared for their eyes in time. Save your eyes before it is too late! Do not become one of these victims of neglect. Eyeglasses are only like crutches and every few years they must be changed to fit the ever-increasing weakened condition, so better see if you can, like many others, get clear, healthy, strong magnetic eyes through the prescription here given. Co-operate and Assist Not Criticise and Find Fault With Board of Trade Plan

Elbert Hubbard in his Philistine always has something to say, and he has a characteristically terse way of saying it, which carries the message to one's consciousness with an appeal that is irresistible in its force. The truth in his program needs no exhaustive demonstration. In the April issue of the Philistine Hubbard must have had in his mind the condition of Newark, in the relation of its citizens to the plan adopted by the Board of Trade for the industrial development of the city when he wrote several paragraphs. At least they certainly apply to the situation right now, and every citizen can gain profit by taking them to heart, pondering upon them and act in accordance with the sentiment.

Here is one, CO-OPERATE AND ASSIST, DON'T CRITICISE AND FIND FAULT.

Any disposition that may have been apparent to do the latter when the Board's plan was first announced, is rapidly disappearing, and the executive committee each day has information of individuals expressing NOT A PASSIVE OR TENTATIVE APPROVAL OF THE PLAN but a desire to take an ACTIVE INTEREST IN THE WORK, and to do his share in its accomplishment. Nearly every day also the secretary reports some organization which has formally endorsed the proposition as a body. This is an encouraging sign and augurs a gratifying sentiment of cooperative effort that means success.

Here is another of Hubbard's: NO GOOD SENSIBLE WORKING BEGINS UNTIL THE ADVISE OF A BEDRUG ON THE SUBJECT OF BUSINESS. MEN ARE UNDER

THE DOMAIN OF NATURAL LAW THE SAME AS BEES. MEN SUCCEED ONLY BY WORKING WITH OTHER MEN AND FOR OTHER MEN.

This again applies to the operation of the Board of Trade's plan as confidently expected by the executive committee. The success of this plan is inclusive of your taking an individual, definite part in pushing it to success. The opportunity is given you to get into your place in the campaign and merge your personality in the grand totality of effort.

This is easily accomplished by the plan of organizing the entire city into precinct districts, each to have a committee of personal workers to carry on the campaign. You are invited, yes urged to join your own efforts with those of others, and THIS brings success by "working with other men for other men," which success can not but include you. Your association with others in the work will bring about interchange of ideas, a wider acquaintance in your own community with a consequent and inevitable knowledge of virtues abounding in those about you of which you had no idea.

By joining forces toward one end, the industrial advancement of the city in which you all are indissolubly bound, the work will become a pleasure, then an enthusiasm and then a glorious success. By becoming a member of the Board of Trade you will also be in a position to enjoy the pleasant association with others that will develop latent activities in your own character, which directed properly will broaden your usefulness and make of you a better citizen.

SCHOOLS RESUME AFTER ENJOYING WEEK'S VACATION

After one week of rest, public school teachers and pupils of Newark returned to their educational duties Monday for the final stretch of the present year's work. Teachers who had spent the week out of Newark returned Saturday to continue their work uninterrupted to the summer vacation time. Commencement date this year is set for June 11.

Parochial schools were dismissed last Friday for Holy Week.

SNOW FLURRIES OCCURRED IN CITY EARLY SUNDAY

Fruit growers in this section of the country are beginning to feel anxious about the quips of the weather. In hope that last year's experience is not repeated, with the nipping of buds and young fruit with resulting ruin to the most of the crop.

A sweep of low temperature manifested its presence in Newark and vicinity Saturday night and continued during the greater part of Sunday. Snow to the depth of perhaps an eighth of an inch, covered the ground early Sunday morning, but disappeared with the first peep of sunshine.

Low temperature continued Monday morning, thermometers registering 32 degrees at 6 o'clock. A considerable rise was shown during the early forenoon, however.

Theaters

Big Producers Believe In Him. The simple fact that the foremost producers of the country entrust Mr. Champlin with their plays is the best guarantee possible of the merit of his productions. While Mr. Champlin is obliged to pay enormous royalties, still money would count but little in obtaining the rights to present such famous plays if the leading New York managers were not sure that they would be artistically handled by this great actor and his company. The Chas. K. Champlin Company will appear at the Auditorium all this week with daily matinees commencing Monday. The Monday matinee bill will be the great Mother love drama, "Madame X." Monday evening Paul Armstrong's powerful detective play "Alias Jimmy Valentine" will be given. During the week the following fine list of plays will be presented: "The Master of the House," a play dealing with the divorce question; "Shores Acres," James A. Hearn's pastoral play; "The Price Women Pay," a drama showing the dangers a young and pretty girl will encounter while traveling alone in a large city; "Daughters of Men," by Chas. Klein author of the "Lion and the Mouse;" "Third Degree" and "The Music Master;" "For a Woman's Honor," a powerful four acts melo-drama; "The Gentleman of Leisure," the play which Douglas Fairbanks made such a hit in at the playhouse New York City.

The cities in which this wonderful organization has appeared, claim that the plays offered are more gorgeously mounted than seen there at $1.50 and $2.00 on former occasions.

"RAGS" IS BURIED BY AN UNDERTAKER AT WATERLOO, IA.

"Rags" is dead! He passed away Saturday at Waterloo, Iowa, where he made his home with his best friend, George M. Fenberg, manager of the Majestic theatre. "Rags" will be remembered by many New Yorkers as the little "poodle" curly-haired pup who always took his time when out strolling with his master during the time that Mr. Fenberg was manager of the Orpheum theatre in this city. The popular manager could start from the Warden Hotel with "Rags" right after luncheon at noon and manage to get to the Orpheum in time for the opening of the house at 2 o'clock. However, we could not speak disparagingly of a dead doggie. "Rags" was a good little doggie. Requiescat in pace. The following obituary of Manager Fenberg's pet appeared in one of the Waterloo papers Saturday afternoon: "Rags," the poodle that died of indigestion at the Majestic theatre yesterday noon, was given a regular burial in Elmwood cemetery at 3:30 this afternoon. Manager George M. Fenberg took the body to an undertaking establishment yesterday afternoon and it was prepared for burial. A fine casket was provided and the burial was made with considerable ostentation. "Rags" had been the property of Mr. Fenberg since puppyhood, eleven years ago.

COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

Ladies! Try this! Darkens beautifully and nobody can tell—Brings back its gloss and thickness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant; remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While wispy, gray faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally. So easily. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair comes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger. Agents, Hall's drug store.

Premiums Are Not Needed to Sell Camels

First, there never was a cigarette, at any price, made of such a delightful blending of Turkish and domestic tobaccos; second, you can't make a Camel Cigarette bite your tongue or parch your throat or leave that cigarette taste common to other cigarettes!

Fact is, you haven't got money enough to buy a cleverer cigarette! That's a strong statement, but we'll back it up if you'll just try a package and find out something about how good a cigarette can be!

Don't look for premiums or coupons. Camel Cigarettes are not that kind of a smoke! The cost of the tobaccos prohibits the use of "inducements."

If your dealer can't supply you, send 10c for 1 package or $1.00 for a carton of 10 packages (200 cigarettes), postage prepaid. After smoking 1 package, if you don't find CAMELS as represented, return the other 9 packages and we will refund your money.

WORK STARTED ON CITY HALL THIS MORNING

Contractors Showers & Taylor put a force of men to work Monday morning on the old city building which will be completely remodeled and repaired and placed in condition for use of the city officers. The work will be rushed as rapidly as possible and it is expected that the city offices will be moved in by July 1.

The store rooms, fronting on Main street may be ready for occupancy before that time.

The entire lower floor will be torn out and renewed. The west walls including that portion of the building occupied by the fire department as a battery and lounge room, will be torn away and a new wall constructed on a line with the apparatus room of the fire department, and the present west wall at the Main street corner.

A new front will be put in on Main street, providing two business rooms for rental purposes. The rooms back of the front and fronting on Fourth street will be placed in condition for occupancy by the service and engineering department of the city government. The Main street and Fourth street fronts will be stucco.

The second story will be overhauled, the floors leveled up and other repairs made for the accommodation of the mayor, auditor, council clerk and other offices. The work will cost a little less than $7,000.

Only a fool trusts to luck for his happiness.

AN APPRECIATION

It is with great pleasure that we thank our many patrons who visited our store Saturday and trust that each and every one has been thoroughly satisfied. But, we realize that during such a rush as we had, there might have been some errors made either in our alteration department or in our store service and we trust that we will hear of any mistakes that may have occurred so that we can rectify them.

We were more than gratified to learn at the end of the day that we had recorded the largest single day's business in the history of our store.
This we can assure you is very gratifying to us, especially so, in view of the fact that we are only using the columns of one daily paper. We certainly feel that our efforts this season have been liberally rewarded in striving as we did to show what is by far the greatest and best line of Cornell Clothes that we have ever been able to secure. In fact, we ourselves marveled at the beauty of the fabrics and styles and from the first fully expected the results that we have attained.

Again we thank you.

NEW ORPHEUM THEATRE OPENED TO THE PUBLIC

With capacity audiences in attendance, the new Orpheum theatre opened Saturday afternoon for the summer season of pictures. With its new decorations and extensive remodeling, many compliments on the new theatre were to be heard.

A splendid six-part photo production of "Arizona," with an all-star cast, headed by Cyril Scott, was the opening bill. Excellent music was furnished by Prof. W. C. Schmidt's six-piece orchestra.

Monday's bill, afternoon and night, is a three-reel drama, entitled "The Fangs of Hate," with two exceptionally good comedy reels.

The new Orpheum promises to make a strong bid for good summer patronage.

IMPROVING NICELY.
C. A. Lyon, assistant yard master, who underwent an operation at his home on East Main street last Monday is getting along nicely and will soon be out again. Drs. Essington, McClure and Jackson performed the operation.

Wooltex Suits for Easter in the new tango shades

THE WEAVE, PATTERN AND COLORING OF FABRICS USED IN WOMEN'S COATS

And suits must be just as fashionable as the cut and design of the garment itself. No matter how beautiful and graceful the style lines of a coat or suit may be, it can not be fully expressive of the latest fashions unless the materials are correct in style.

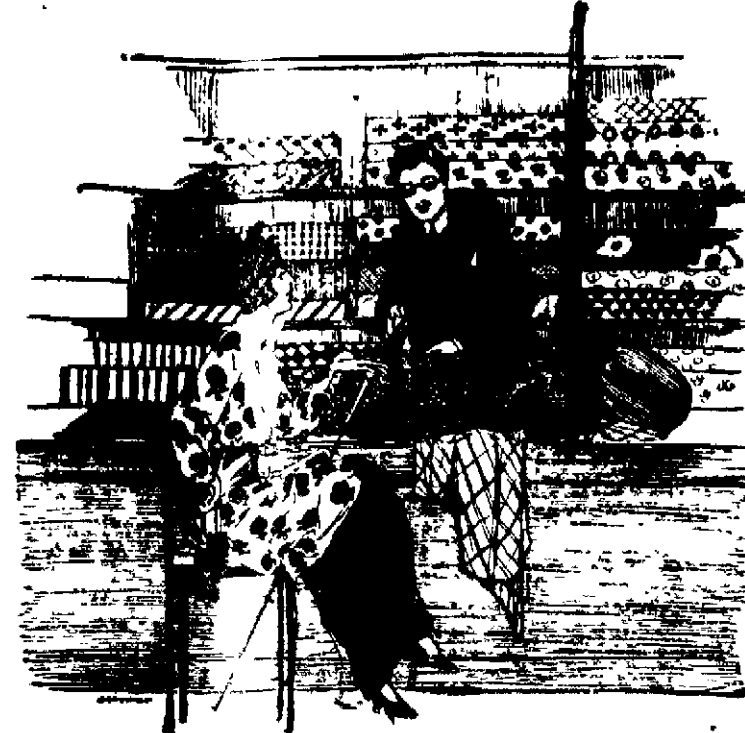

Wooltex coats and suits are made from the choicest materials produced by the cloth and silk makers of America and Europe, and always represent the final word in coloring.

Just now we are showing a number of beautiful Wooltex coats and suits in the latest tango shades.

THREE YOUTHS STAGE BIG SHOW ON JUG OF CIDER

After inbibing from the contents of a jug which is said to have contained hard cider, Ray Polton, aged 15, H. H. Polton and John Works, older boys, proceeded to "paint the town red" Sunday afternoon and had made good progress with the art work when Police Chief Sheridan and Headquarters Officer Hager interrupted their fun and landed them at the city prison.

The boys were feeling glorious and after creating a big disturbance in the South End, started on a wild drive towards the center of the city. Chief Sheridan and the patrol wagon crew intercepted them in Railroad street, west of Fifth.

Monday morning the young men, full of remorse, told the mayor and chief that they had obtained the cider from 124 Canfield, North Fourth street restaurant keeper and an affidavit was filed against Canfield by Chief Sheridan, charging him with the sale of intoxicants. He will be arraigned before Mayor Rughe Monday afternoon.

Ray Polton, the 15-year-old member of the party was turned over to the juvenile officers and his case will be disposed of at a later date. The older Polton boy and Works will be charged with intoxication after the case against Canfield is heard.
